

Detail Product of PT Listrikum

Solar Home System

Spesification

SHS is one of the application of solar systems for village electricity , as individual home lighting system , which consists of several main components of Solar Panels that generate electricity from sunlight , battery as energy storage , Battery Charged Regulator (BCR) as a means of automatic control and lights which convert electricity into light . SHS is suitable for lighting disadvantaged areas not reached by the flow of electricity and also areas that are experiencing electric energy crisis especially remote areas. Basic application PV system is Solar Home System, for individual house hold electricity in remote . GAE has developed up to 250 Wp .